One-sentence concept statement (describe your book in one sentence):

Provide up to twelve keywords that describe the content of your work. We may use these for search engine optimization. (Please separate keywords by comma.)

Author bio(s): Please provide a brief up-to-date “About the Author” description for each author that can be used in the book or marketing materials. Please limit biographical summaries to your current position, one previous position, and any past or present experience and/or background related to the subject of the book (for example, any relevant teaching, speaking, and/or writing experience). Try to condense this information into one simple paragraph of 50 to 100 words. We will edit your summary to conform to our formatting and style standards, and also for length for different purposes in our outreach. See page two of the Author Guide for a sample biography.

About the author(s):

Target audience

Who would you consider the target audience for your book?

Please list any journals/media entities/publications/blogs/influencers RELATED TO the field of library and information science to which review copies of your book might be sent:

Please list any journals/media entities/publications/blogs/influencers OUTSIDE the field of library and information science to which review copies of your book might be sent:

If you would like us to send a press release to your library school alumni office or your organization's public relations office, please provide the appropriate contact name and information:

Please describe your speaking activities (e.g., sponsoring organizations, approximate number of engagements annually, etc.):

Please identify any periodicals in the library and information services field for which you write/edit:

If relevant to your professional activities, please list your social media handles and any blogs you contribute to/maintain:

Please add any additional comments or ideas pertinent to the promotion of your work. Feel free to include any other relevant documents with your submission.

■ SALES INFORMATION

Please list the library/information science courses for which your book could be used as a text or as supplementary reading:

Does your book satisfy the continuing education/staff development needs of practitioners? If so, please list any organizations or CE providers that might be interested, and explain how your book meets their needs:

On the following pages, you'll find a contact list for ALA Editions | ALA Neal-Schuman. Please complete and submit a form W-9 and, if you wish, a direct deposit authorization at the time you submit your author questionnaire. If you live outside of the United States and are not a US citizen, please complete a W-8BEN instead of a W-9.
